CALLING ALL TRANS+/SOFFA WRITERS AND ARTISTS

Essays, poems, artwork and other creative two-dimensional works are wanted for the FORGE Forward 2007 Conference and Intensives Program Book.

“Honoring Our Complexities” is the Conference theme, and we’d like the Program Book to include some thought-provoking reflections on what that means for individuals, for the trans/SOFFA community, and for our larger society. Programming for this Conference spans everything from very practical skills-building to very provocative and open challenges to what we typically recognize, include and honor, and what we don’t. We are seeking articles and/or artwork that also span this wide range: how-to’s, manifestos, narratives, personal stories...send us whatever you think of when you hear “Honoring Our Complexities.”

Prose and poetry should be under 1,000 words, and artwork should be reproducible in black and white on an 8-1/2” X 11” page. Creators of published works will be given credit and additional program books to distribute as they see fit, and will be offered display space (artists) or an opportunity to read their work aloud (authors) at the Conference. Conference organizers reserve the sole right to choose what is published.

Deadline: February 10, 2007. Works should be emailed to conference@forge-forward.org. If you must mail us paper artwork (no originals please!), contact us by email before February 10 to make appropriate arrangements. Please include contact information and a bio with your submission(s).

Questions? Email conference@forge-forward.org or call 414-559-2123. For more information on the FORGE Forward 2007 Conference and Intensives, see our website at www.forge-forward.org/conference
