CREATIVE SPIRITUALITY FOR THE THIRD GENDER TRIBE

- Audience: Anyone interested in the intersection of spirituality and gender.
- Facilitated by Raven Kaldera: transgendered intersex northern-tradition shaman.
- This intensive honors transgender people as sacred.
- The intensive will explore life-affirming ways to express both spirituality and creativity through music, rhythm and dance, prose and poetry, and the creation of individualized prayers and prayer beads.
- Historic and mythic archetypes of transgender ancestors and loved ones will be discussed, as well as living life as a sacred pathway.
- If you have them, bring drums and rhythm instruments for the drum circle, and poetry or short prose about your trans and/or spiritual experience.

RAVEN KALDERA

Raven Kaldera is a shaman, an astrologer, a farmer and homesteader, and an FTM transgendered intersexual activist. He is the author of too many books to list, including "Hermaphrodeities: The Transgender Spirituality Workbook", and is the co-editor of "Best Transgender Erotica". 'Tis an ill wind that blows no minds.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Early birds are welcome at a pre-opening presentation by renowned writer, poet, and trans-activist Minnie Bruce Pratt (dinner optional) before the official conference kicks off the evening of Friday, March 30. From then through Sunday evening, hundreds of trans-masculine individuals and SOFFAs (Significant Others, Friends, Family, and Allies) will, for one low price, enjoy:

- More than 75 concurrent workshops
- Keynote addresses by leading transgender and SOFFA activists and innovative thinkers, including:
 - Eli Clare
 - Jay Sennett
 - Dean Spade
 - Susan Stryker
 - Willy Wilkinson
- Provocative entertainment by:
 - S. Bear Bergman
 - Imani Henry
 - Coyote Grace
- Dozens of socializing and networking opportunities
- An exhibit hall packed full of vendors and organizations
- Consultations with respected surgeons
- 12-step recovery meetings
- Childcare (pre-registrants only)
- ASL and accessibility services (pre-registrants only)
- Singles events
- and much, much more!

STILL WANT MORE?

We still have more! Add-ons include:

- “From the Medical Gaze to Sublime Mutations: The Ethics of Re-viewing Nonstandard Body Images,” presentation by Ben Singer (Thursday evening, March 29; dinner optional)
- Minnie Bruce Pratt (Friday evening, March 30; dinner optional)
- “Breaking Isolation, Building Community: A Gathering for Disabled and Deaf Trans People and Our Allies,” extended caucus facilitated by Eli Clare and Sebastian Margaret (Friday, March 30)
- Fast Food for Power Networkers: boxed lunch options (Saturday and Sunday)
- T-shirts featuring the great Conference logo developed by Wolfgang Beilschmidt

HOW YOU CAN HELP

There are many ways you can help make this Conference accessible to as large a segment of our community as possible: Attend the Conference! Share information about the Conference with those who might be benefit! Join together and share rides and housing to minimize costs! Be a vendor.
