

In celebration of Leslie Feinberg's latest release, Drag King Dreams, Broad Vocabulary is hosting a series of workshops, lectures, and discussions through Saturday, March 18, 2006!

TRANS AWARENESS DAY @ BROAD VOCABULARY

Free

Broad Vocabulary
2241 S. KINNICKINNIC

Saturday
March 18,
2006

BRI SMITH

11:30–1:00pm: Lecture on Louis Sullivan.

Bri Smith, UWM Ph.D. Candidate in the Dept. of History, Modern Studies will discuss her biographical research of Louis ("Lou") Graydon Sullivan. Lou Sullivan was born in Milwaukee in 1951 and died from AIDS complications in San Francisco in 1991. Sullivan continues to be one of the most influential voices in trans scholarship, and offers a fascinating exploration of the relationship between social forces and identity formation.

FORGE

1:00pm–2:30pm: Butch, FTM, Partner Dialogue.

Come listen and share at a FORGE-moderated panel discussion exploring the similarities and differences between butch, FTM, partner and other identities and trans-masculine-related experiences. We will compare and contrast how people construct their relationships, gender/social identities, and what the implications are for ourselves and others.

SARAH MORGAN

3:00pm–4:30pm: Sarah Morgan, Trans Health Care

UWM Nursing Professor, Sarah Morgan, will speak about her research and work regarding Transgender and Transexual Health Care.

MILTOWN KINGS

5:00pm–6:30pm: Miltown Kings Drag Workshop

Members of Milwaukee's Drag King Troupe, the Miltown Kings will discuss the art and politics of drag, followed by transforming willing participants into drag kings, queens, and high femmes.

FORGE
PO Box 1272
MILWAUKEE, WI 53201
PHONE: 414-559-2123

INFO@FORGE-FORWARD.ORG
WWW.FORGE-FORWARD.ORG/SOCIALSUPPORT
WWW.FORGE-FORWARD.ORG/CONFERENCE